WEEKLY HOMILY / HOMILÍA SEMANAL

---

Fifth Sunday of Lent/Quinto Domingo de Cuaresma 2015

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ.

Today, with the celebration of Palm Sunday, the Messianic entrance of Jesus Christ into Jerusalem, we solemnly begin Holy Week. We heard in the gospel proclaimed during the procession at the beginning of the Mass how Jesus sent his disciples to look for a colt so he could borrow it to enter into the holy city. We also heard how the people, knowing that Jesus was entering the city, acclaimed him as the “Son of David, son of the “King,” the Messiah, and how many of them were thinking that “finally, he (Jesus) decided to make himself known. This was because of all the signs: He was entering Jerusalem by the gate that was supposed be the one by which the Messiah would enter, he was entering as a king would, upon a horse, even though is was only a colt, as we read in the Old Testament. So Jesus is making an important sign in front of everybody, since he is entering in Jerusalem as King, and the people are witnesses to all these signs, because many of them have been seeing the miracles and wonders that Jesus already did in their midst. Everybody is very happy and content, because the Messiah has come, the one who is going to free them from the oppressors, and they begin to acclaim him and to shout, “Hosanna to the Son of David, Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord, etc.” What does the Lord want to tell us with this fact of his messianic entrance into Jerusalem at the beginning of the mass, and with the reading of his passion at the end of the liturgy of the Word? Something very simple -- that this is our life, that in some moments of our life we are euphoric, we are very happy and we acclaim him as the Messiah, as the son of God, as our liberator, but when confronted with his suffering, when we encounter it face to face, we reject him, we ask for justice, human justice, we choose Barabbas, and ask to crucify Jesus!! Confronted with the suffering, the injustices, we rebel against them. Meanwhile Jesus remained silent, not because he had nothing to say, but because he was doing his Father’s will. He is in total communion with his Father, not waiting for a legion of soldiers to come and free him, but praying for his Father to comfort him in this moment of anguish, so he could enter into his Paschal Mystery for our salvation. So my brothers and sisters let us ask our God to help us entering into this Holy Week hoping to find our risen Lord. God bless you all.

Queridos hermanos en Cristo.

Hoy se da comienzo solemnemente la Semana Santa, con la celebración del Domingo de Ramos, la entrada mesiánica de Cristo en Jerusalén. Hemos escuchado en el primer evangelio, el que se ha leído antes del comienzo de la Santa Misa, como Cristo manda a dos de sus discípulos a recoger un borriquillo para que Jesús lo monte al entrar en la ciudad Santa de Jerusalén, y como la gente al saber que es Jesús el que viene montado en el borriquillo (animal usado por los reyes para pasearse) Así que aquí Cristo esta haciendo una señal muy importante, esta entrando como Rey en Jerusalén, y esto la gente se esta dando cuenta, ya que ha hecho muchos milagros, y la gente piensa, “Por fin se ha decidido a reconocer lo que es, es el Mesías.” Pero Cristo va mas allá. Todo el mundo esta contento, “Por fin el liberador ha llegado, Hosanna Hijo de David, Bendito el que viene en nombre de Yahvé, etc.” Pero que pasa, que el Evangelio de la misa es el relato de la Pasión de nuestro Señor. Y que nos quiere decir este hecho de tener la entrada mesiánica de Jesús al principio, y el relato de la pasión al final de la liturgia de la palabra? Pues que esta es nuestra vida, que en algunos momentos todos estamos muy eufóricos, llenos del Espíritu Santo podemos decir, por que el Señor nos ha concedido las gracias o los favores que le hemos pedido, mas sin embargo, cuando no obtenemos lo que pedimos o las cosas no salen como creemos, o el Señor permite algo que no nos gusta en nuestra vida, y como respondemos? Pidiendo Justicia, Barrabas, queremos a Barrabas, a ese medio muerto no, a ese crucifícalo! Ante la injusticia, nos revelamos, mientras que Cristo permanece en silencio, no por que no tiene nada que decir, sino por que esta con el Padre, en total comunión, no esperando una legión de soldados que vengan en su ayuda, sino orando al Padre Eterno que lo reconforte en este momento, y así pueda entrar en el Misterio Pascual, para nuestra salvación. Por eso hermanos, pidamos a nuestro Dios que nos ayude a entrar en esta Semana Santa esperando poder encontrarnos con el Señor Resucitado. Que Dios los bendiga a todos.

SUFFERING

Jesus did not come to do away with suffering or remove it. He came to fill it with his presence.

—Paul Claudel

SUFRIMIENTO

Jesús no vino a eliminar el sufrimiento, sino a sufrir con nosotros. El hombre que sufre no es inútil ni inactivo.

—Paul Claudel
