WEEKLY HOMILY / HOMILÍA SEMANAL*Pentecost/Pentecostés CicloCycle A

Today we are celebrating “Pentecost.” This feast reminds us of the fifty days (that should be lived as one day) after Jesus’ resurrection where according to the church’s tradition, the twelve disciples received the Holy Spirit. In the first reading, from the book of the Acts of the Apostles, this historical moment is described when the disciples received the gifts of the Holy Spirit. Imagine the situation of the “Twelve,” their master had been killed, they were scared to death, and they were not able to get out from the house because of fear of being made prisoners and being sent to jail, or even worse being killed. And suddenly, bam! A strong wind entered the house and the disciples received the Holy Spirit in the shape of tongues of fire. They are not fearful anymore; they got out into the streets and announced the good news, The Gospel, that Jesus is risen!!! They received the strength of the Holy Spirit, so they can go and evangelize without fear of what could happen. In the second reading, from the letter to the Corinthians, Saint Paul tells us something very important, that without the Holy Spirit it is not possible to say Christ is the Lord! If the gifts of the Holy Spirit are not received it is not possible to evangelize. Which are these gifts: Wisdom and Intelligence, Counsel and Strength, Knowledge of the Lord and Piety, and the Fear of the Lord. These gifts are a help for us, because they help us to discover Christ in every person, they help us to discern what is good, what is coming from God or what is a product of our appetites and desires. And above all, these gifts help us to desire not to lose the love of God in our lives, and so we can face our temptations and problems with the Lord. So, let us ask to our Lord and Father to receive the Holy Spirit so we can experience two things. The first one is true peace, as Jesus told the disciples in today’s Gospel, and they rejoiced greatly, they are afraid no more, because the Master is with them again. And secondly, the gift of being able to forgive those who do something evil against us, and more important to forget their offenses. May the Lord bless you always, Happy Pentecost.

Hoy celebramos la fiesta de “Pentecostés,” esta fiesta que conmemora los 50 días (que se viven como si fuera uno solo) después de la resurrección de Cristo, donde según la tradición de la Iglesia Católica, los Apóstoles recibieron el Espíritu Santo. En la primera lectura, de los hechos de los apóstoles, se nos describe como fue ese momento histórico donde los discípulos del Señor, recibieron los dones y las gracias del Espíritu Santo. Imaginaros la situación de los “Doce,” han matado a su maestro, y estaban asustados, no se atrevían ni siquiera a salir a la calle por miedo a que los arrestaran. Y de pronto, llega un viento fuertísimo que les entrega el Espíritu Santo en forma de lenguas de fuego, y ya no tienen más miedo, salen a la calle a anunciar la buena noticia, el Evangelio, de que Cristo está vivo. Reciben la fuerza del Espíritu Santo para salir a evangelizar sin miedo. Por eso en la segunda lectura, de la carta a los corintios, San Pablo nos dice algo muy importante, que Sin el Espíritu Santo, no se puede decir que Cristo es el Señor. Sino se reciben los dones de la tercera persona de la santísima Trinidad, es imposible evangelizar. Cuales son estos dones: Sabiduría e inteligencia, Consejo y Fortaleza, Ciencia y Piedad, y El Temor del Señor. Estos dones son una ayuda para nosotros, ya que así podemos descubrir a Cristo en todos los hombres y discernir lo que es lo bueno, lo que viene de Dios y lo que viene de nuestras apetencias y deseos. Y también la gracia de temer a Dios en nuestra vida por el pecado, y poder ser fuerte en nuestra debilidad para poder afrontar con el Señor toda tentación que pueda aparecernos. Pidámosle a nuestro Señor que nos conceda su Espíritu Santo y así poder experimentar dos cosas, la primera la paz, como les dice a los discípulos en el evangelio de hoy, y ellos se alegran muchísimo, ya no tienen miedo, el maestro está de nuevo con ellos. Y segundo la gracia de perdonar a los que nos hacen el mal, por que sin este espíritu es muy difícil perdonar a los enemigos, y sobre todo olvidar los ofensas que nos han hecho. Que Dios me los bendiga a todos. Feliz Pentecostés

SEND OUT YOUR SPIRIT

Last week we heard that, following the Ascension, the disciples, Mary, and other followers of the Lord retreated to the upper room in prayer. This week we hear that, while praying in that room, the Holy Spirit comes upon them. Jesus' post-Resurrection promise, recounted in today's Gospel, is fulfilled: the power of the Holy Spirit comes upon Jesus' followers. Saint Paul tells us that all of us, in some way, are given gifts of the Holy Spirit, gifts that can be used to spread the Good News. Today is one of the Church's greatest festivals. Let us carry the refrain of the responsorial psalm with us throughout the coming week: "Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth!" (Psalm 104:30).

ENVÍA TU ESPÍRITU

La semana pasada oímos que después de la Ascensión, los discípulos, María y otros seguidores del Señor se retiraron al piso alto donde perseveraron unánimes en la oración. Esta semana escuchamos que, mientras estaban en oración allí, el Espíritu Santo vino sobre ellos. La promesa de Jesús, luego de su Resurrección que el Evangelio de hoy relata, se cumple: el poder del Espíritu Santo viene sobre los seguidores de Jesús. San Pablo nos dice que a todos nosotros, de alguna manera, se nos dan los dones del Espíritu Santo, dones que se pueden usar para anunciar la Buena Nueva. Hoy es una de las más grandes fiestas de la Iglesia. Llevemos con nosotros el estribillo del salmo responsorial: "¡Envía tu Espíritu, Señor, y repuebla la faz de la tierra!" (Salmo 104:30).
