Twenty-Ninth Sunday OT/ Vigésimo Noveno Domingo T.O. Ciclo/Cycle A

This Sunday Jesus tells us, "Repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God." I can do no better than recommend Archbishop Charles Chaput's excellent book Render Unto Caesar subtitled "Serving the Nation by Living Our Catholic Beliefs in Political Life." Archbishop Chaput explains that he wrote the book because a friend asked him to do it. His friend is a young attorney who ran for the Colorado General Assembly on the Democratic ticket. The book brilliantly explains why - and how - Christians should actively involve themselves in our country's political life. As Archbishop Chaput makes clear, that will not do. In the opening chapters, Archbishop Chaput explains why political involvement is a Christian duty. He answers those who try to intimidate us by invoking a false understanding of the "separation of church and state." Although Christian faith is always personal, it is never private. That is, our faith will inevitably have implications for our public actions. What then is the basis for Christian involvement in politics? The answer is simple: Jesus gave us the command to love God above all things and to love our neighbor as ourselves. As Archbishop Chaput develops at some length, that dual command is the reason for any involvement in politics. More on that next Sunday when we hear Jesus' reply to the scholar who asked him, "Which commandment in the law is the greatest?"

Este domingo Jesús nos dice, "Den, pues, al Cesar lo que es del Cesar, y a Dios lo que es de Dios." No puedo hacer mejor que recomendar el libro excelente del Arzobispo Charles Chaput Render Unto Caesar (Dar al Cesar) con el subtítulo "Sirviendo la Nación por Vivir nuestras Creencias Católicas en la Vida Política." El Arzobispo Chaput explica que escribió el libro al pedido de un amigo. Su amigo es un abogado joven que postulo para la Asamblea General de Colorado en la lista Demócrata. El libro explica brillantemente porque Cristianos deben involucrarse en la vida política del país. Como el Arzobispo Chaput explica, eso no va. En los primeros capítulos el arzobispo explica porque la participación política es un deber cristiano. Responde a los que tratan de callarnos por medio de un entendimiento falso de la "separación de iglesia y estado." A pesar de hecho que la fe cristiano es siempre personal, jamás es un asunto privado. Es decir, nuestra fe siempre tendrá implicaciones para nuestra actividad pública. Y ¿cual es la base para la participación cristiana en la política? La respuesta es sencilla: Jesús nos ha dado el mandato de amar a Dios sobre todo y al prójimo como a nosotros mismos. Como el Arzobispo explica, ese mandamiento doble es el motivo por cualquiera participación en la política. Mas el próximo domingo cuando escuchamos la respuesta de Jesús al doctor que le pregunta: "Cual es el mandamiento mas grande de la ley."

- a day that leads us to the heart of our Christian faith - leads us to mission! Your generosity on World Mission Sunday supports the work of priests, religious and lay leaders in the Missions who share our faith with those most in need. This year we can even "chat" with our chief missionary, Pope Francis, and learn more about his missions and missionaries. Learn more at ChatWithThePope.org. Chat - Pray - Give this World Mission Sunday.

Su generosidad en el Domingo Mundial de las Misiones apoya la obra de sacerdotes, líderes religiosos y laicos en las misiones que diseminan nuestra fe entre quienes tienen las necesidades más apremiantes. Este año incluso podemos "chatear" con nuestro misionero principal, el papa Francisco, y conocer más sobre sus misiones y los misionarios. Más información en ChatWithThePope.org. Chatear, orar, y dar en este Domingo Mundial de las Misiones.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

What makes the Eucharistic Prayers for Masses with Children different from the others? First, there is the intended assembly, which is described as comprised of mostly children of school age. There are three Eucharistic Prayers for Masses with Children available to us now in the missal. The first one has a very simple form, easily grasped by even a young child. The second has a great deal of participation by the assembly--repeated sung acclamations. The third has a number of variations that can be tricky for a priest to handle if he hasn't prepared carefully. All of this work does point to a true treasure of our tradition: children are part of the Sunday assembly, precisely because they are baptized members of Christ's body. By contrast, the churches of the Reformation tend to look upon children as members in training, and see worship as an adult activity. Sunday school happens downstairs while the adults celebrate Holy Communion upstairs. In a phrase, that's not Catholic. Children belong to Christ and to the assembly. So, the desire to care for the children in the assembly, to draw them into the prayer, and to adapt our rituals and texts to their needs is deeply Catholic, a true pastoral effort to help draw everyone into the praise of God. -- Rev. James Field, Copyright (c) J. S. Paluch Co.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

En tiempos pasados, cuando los fieles latinoamericanos se enfermaban gravemente se mandaba traer al sacerdote para que le administrara los "santos óleos" o la "extremaunción". Nadie quería ver a un sacerdote acercarse con los óleos porque significaba que uno estaba por morir. Gracias a Dios, las reformas del Concilio Vaticano II han regresado al sacramento de la Unción de los Enfermos su sentido original. Este sacramento es celebrado para todos los que tengan alguna enfermedad seria, aunque no sea de muerte. El sacramento es para pedir consuelo para el enfermo y si es voluntad de Dios, la salud. Este sacramento no debe ser reservado para preparar al paciente para la muerte. Santiago, en su carta a los cristianos, nos dice que si uno de nosotros está enfermo que llame al presbítero de la Iglesia para que lo unja con óleo o aceite santo. Y añade que la oración hecha con fe perdonará los pecados del enfermo y lo sanará para que recupere su vida cotidiana. Este sacramento, como todos los sacramentos, son para la vida, tanto la vida cotidiana como lo vida eterna. - Fray Gilberto Cavazos-Glz, OFM, Copyright (c) J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.
